

Lackebach Siegel Client Alert

A LACKENBACH SIEGEL ALERT DECEMBER 2001

Dear Clients and Friends,

The firm is proud to announce that effective Tuesday, January 1, 2002, its legal name is:

Lackebach Siegel LLP

For many years our clients and friends have known us as Lackebach Siegel so we felt that it was time to make a formal change.

Thank you very much for taking the time to update your files and records to reflect our new information.

Approaching our 80th year in Intellectual Property Law, we are proud of our accomplishments as a contributor to the business community world wide.

We enter this new year with two new partners, several new associates and with hope that the sadness which the terror created will soon abate, and offer our wishes for peace.

Good Luck and Good Fortune in the New Year. Lackebach Siegel
LLP

LS LLP History and Background

Who would expect to find a major international intellectual property law firm nestled within the Tudor walls of pristine Scarsdale Village. Lackenbach Siegel specializes in U.S. and international patent, trademark, copyright, Internet, and unfair competition matters, and is located in picturesque Scarsdale Village, mere miles from New York City. Since 1923, Lackenbach Siegel has provided its clients with high quality, attentive service in an atmosphere that inspires confidence.

The firm has patent, trademark, copyright, litigation, Internet, and transactional departments to provide full service representation. It has represented foreign governments and universities, as well as designers such as Donna Karan, Kenneth Cole, Diane Von Furstenberg, Dimitri, Geoffrey Beene, Gianni Versace, Bill Blass, and the like, and corporate clients such as Warner Communications, American Cyanamid, Witco Chemical, Cunard Cruise Lines, Sega etc.

Lackenbach Siegel aids clients in policing their trademarks by attending industry trade shows in the United States and Europe in order to canvass its clients' competitors. Aggressive representation is the firm's hallmark.

With the option in America of so many law firms, one might wonder why companies like Korea's Hyundai Motor America, Japan's giant cosmetic firm Shiseido Company, Ltd., Italian-based Alitalia Airline, and California-located The BackStreet Boys would all be firmly committed to the progressive lawyers at Lackenbach Siegel.

Lackenbach Siegel, whose history spans almost the entire twentieth century, is comprised of partners and associates who are noted authors and lecturers, and provides its clients with superior and diversified representation in all fields of intellectual property and computer law.
